

I am opposed to the effort by a banking group to weaken Wisconsin's do not call law. Traditionally, the US Government has enacted law that sets a "floor" and states are able to adopt stricter guidelines or laws. The effort of this group to weaken a law established in Wisconsin that goes above the set federal guidelines should be ignored.